

On motion of Mr. Berret,
The house adjourned until 4 o'clock, P. M.

• FOUR O'CLOCK, P.M.

The house met.

Mr. Simmons, chairman of the committee on engrossed bills, delivered the following report:

The committee on engrossed bills beg leave to Report,

That they have carefully examined and compared the engrossed bills of the house of delegates, from number one to number seventy-three inclusive, and also the engrossed bills of the senate from number seventy-four to number ninety three inclusive, with the originals thereof, as heretofore passed by both houses of the Legislature of Maryland since the commencement of the present session, and that they have found the same to be truly engrossed.

All which is respectfully submitted.

CEPHAS SIMMONS, Chairman.

By order,

BEN. SEEGAR, Clerk.

Which was twice read and concurred in.

The clerk of the senate delivered the engrossed bills of the senate, from No. 74, to No. 93, inclusive;

Which were severally read, assented to, and returned to the senate.

The engrossed bills of the House of Delegates, from No. 1, to No. 73, were severally read, assented to, and sent to the senate.

The clerk of the senate returned the said bills, endorsed severally read, and assented to.

A deputation from the senate being announced, Messrs. Ricaud and Tidball, members of that body, appeared within the bar of the house, and informed the Speaker, that his Excellency the Governor was attending in the senate chamber, and requested the attendance of the house, to see him sign and seal the laws.

The speaker, attended by the members of the house, went to the senate chamber, when his Excellency the Governor in the presence of both houses, signed and affixed the Great Seal to the engrossed bills, from No. 1 to No. 93, inclusive.

The speaker, with the rest of the members, returned and resumed the chair.

On motion of Mr. Evans,

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.
